“HEALTHY FOOD FOR WORKING WOMEN”

Date: 12.2.2020

Departments of Biochemistry, Microbiology & Chemistry of Shrimati Indira Gandhi College jointly organized a Faculty Development Programme for Faculty of Shrimati Indira Gandhi College, on “Healthy Food for Working Women “at VG Block smart class room on 12.2.2020 at 2.30pm. The focus area of this programme was health management of working women.

Dr. P. Lakshmi Prabha, Head Department of Chemistry and Dr. B. Varalakshmi, Asst. Prof, Department of Biochemistry was the resource persons. They spoke on some ideal tips for maintaining the health of working women which can be easily followed by them amidst their busy schedule. Spending sufficient time is the limiting factor for preparing food by many working women. Speakers shared few good ideas and tips regarding preparation of easy and healthy foods, such as vegetable salads with nuts, vegetable soups, sprouted grams, and low calorie snacks etc., which are healthy foods which need no time to prepare. They also focused on some low calorie high protein foods. The speakers insisted on importance of simple exercises, regular walking, and body weight maintenance. Topics covered also included measurement and calculation of Body Mass Index (BMI).

Faculty Development Programme on “Deduction under Sec-80 C”

Date : 07/02/2020

Time : 2.00 p.m- 3.30 p.m

Venue : Y.Venkateswara Dikshidar A/c Seminar Hall

The Resource person Ms.N.Saraswathi started the programme by giving an introduction about the tax system. She explained that there are various deductions a taxpayer can claim from his/her total income to bring down taxable income and thereby reduce the tax outgo.

She described that tax deductions provide a means for individuals to reduce their tax burden. Among the various tax-saving options, most individuals prefer to claim tax deduction under Section 80 C of the Income Tax Act,1961. Section 80 C allows individuals and HUFs to claim tax deduction of upto Rs.1,50,000 from their gross total income for certain investments and payments.

She created awareness about Eligible deductions under section 80 C. The following investments and payments are eligible for deduction under section 80 C of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

1. Life insurance
2. Sukanya sumriddhi yojana
3. Public provident fund
4. Equity Linked Saving Scheme
5. Five year Bank Deposit
6. Stamp Duty & Registration charges
7. Senior citizens savings scheme

79 staff members were benefited due to this essential information regarding tax deductions in Income Tax Act, 1961.
