Questions to ask

There are many colleges available for studying Arts and Sciences. How do you choose the right one for your higher education? Remember, a wrong decision will be a costly mistake and lead to the next 3 years becoming a waste of time.

Here are some questions to ask when evaluating colleges.

IS THERE A VARIETY OF COURSES AVAILABLE?

Do I have multiple courses to choose from? Does the college support my passion and areas of interest?

DOES THE COLLEGE GIVE IMPORTANCE TO EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES?

Academics is fine, but I want to excel outside the classroom too. Can the college support that? Does the college have sports facilities, clubs and committees for students?

ARE ALL REQUIRED FACILITIES AVAILABLE?

Does the college offer transport facilities? Does it provide accommodation? Are there meals and snacks available? What about medical support, internet, libraries? Does the college invest in the best facilities for its students?

ARE THE PROFESSORS FRIENDLY?

I want my professors to be friendly and approachable. Can I ask them any question without fear? Can I talk freely with them?

Questions to ask (contd.)

WHAT ABOUT PRACTICAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES?

Will the college maximize my learning through student projects and hands-on applications of theoretical concepts?

CAN I GET FINANCIAL AID FOR MY EDUCATION?

Does the college offer scholarships to deserving students? Are there any fee concessions provided for students who find it hard to pay fee?

INTERNSHIPS AND PLACEMENT SUPPORT

What about my career? Will the college offer career guidance and job placement support? Does it have industry contacts? Do national and international organizations recognize the college and its students?

I WANT A JOLLY COLLEGE LIFE.

Does this college respect my personal time and desires? Will I meet friendly students just like in school? Can I enjoy my student life and create a lot of happy memories?
